

Memorial Book

In Loving Memory of

George Moraucik

(March 28, 1972 - February 21, 2001)

Be open to your dreams, people. Embrace that distant shore. Because our mortal journey is over all too soon.

David Assael

This memorial website was created to remember our dearest George Moravcik who was born in Queens New York on March 28, 1972 and passed away on February 21, 2001. You will live forever in our memories and hearts.

Gallery

so sweet, so unforgettable...

To Georgie

Mommy Loves You. You are always on my mind I want to hold you so bad I miss you so much I want to go back when you where little

The background is a textured, mottled brownish-gold color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the left is smaller and more tightly curled, while the one on the right is larger and more open, showing more of its petals. The roses are rendered in a slightly darker shade than the background, giving them a subtle, embossed appearance.

Memories

all the gray you turned into colors...

Liza Dobelle

I remember when you were born and Titi and Uncle brought you home. You were so long I had to sit to hold you. As you grow up we became more than just cousins we were friends too. I remember you driving the '77 Red Firebird to Hudson High School while I was pregnant with Sean and Titi telling you to be careful. There were so many memories over your short but full life. I wish you were here now to share my life now with my new husband. I feel your presence everyday and I know you approve of him. We both (Craig & I) will all be together one day in heaven.

Autumn

The last time you called me on the phone to tell Henry and I you were there if we needed you after our son passed away. I will always remember the wonderful things you said. You helped us more than you'll ever know. You have touched many people with your love and kindness. We'll always remember you and never forget you.

Two roses are positioned in the upper right quadrant of the image. The background is a textured, mottled brownish-gold color. The roses are rendered in a soft, painterly style, with delicate shading on their petals.
